

Information Updated: April 12th, 2017

We regret to announce to applicants that we are currently fully hired for the 2017 spring/summer planting season, and are no longer accepting applications.

If you're interested in applying for a job for the 2018 planting season, please check back here starting in early January of 2018.

People who are interested in a job as a first-time tree planter, who are trying to get a better understanding of the industry, should start with this link:

<http://jonathan-scooter-clark.blogspot.com/2017/02/tree-planter-training-pre-season.html>

